

DEMONIAC HATE

suit of the assassination of Carnot is almost beyond description. On the boulevards scenes of the greatest excitement have been witnessed today. The police had the greatest difficulty in dispersing the crowds of wildly angry people who assembled at different points discussing the tragedy, cursing the assassin and calling for vengeance against the murderer and his supposed accomplices. The fact that the assassin is an Italian has given rise to the most dangerously bitter feeling against Italy and Italians, and several Italian flags displayed out of sympathy with France's loss and draped with crepe, were hoisted at and in at least one instance, pulled down and torn into shreds.

In every quarter of the place fierce demonstrations against the Italian residents have taken place, and as a result nearly all the Italian cafes and restaurants have been closed.

But if the feeling against Italians is strong the sentiment of hatred with which the majority of the people regard anarchists is still stronger, and is growing hourly in intensity. Santo, the murderer, has boldly asserted that he is an anarchist, and therefore, pouring their wrath. Further than asserting that he is an anarchist, the prisoner has not apparently made any statement, but it is reported that the police are convinced that the assassination of President Carnot is the result of a plan in which some others are concerned.

This however, is only a report, as the authorities are engaged in a most exhaustive investigation into the prisoner's past career and recent movements, and no official statement on the subject is likely to be made until this inquiry is completed.

The weapon used by the murderer was a long, triangular blade of the stiletto pattern. Upon the blade are engraved the words, "Record of Toledo." The sheath of the weapon is of velvet, with red and black stripes. President Carnot's last words were: "Thank you, my friends; thank you."

Regarding the political situation it is believed that ex-Casimir-Perier, now president of the chamber of deputies has the best chance of succeeding the late president, but the names of M. Challemeil-Lassour president of the senate, Cavaignac, Dupuy, Brisson, Constans and General Sausier are also probably strong candidates.

THE WORLD TO BE MADE OVER.

Wild Statement of a Chicago Anarchist When He Hears the News.

CHICAGO, June 25.—Oscar Neebe, who spent seven years of his life in Joliet after conviction of participation in the Haymarket riot, said the assassination of President Carnot was a cowardly and unnecessary act, and one that would injure the cause of progress.

"Carnot has been a very inoffensive man," said he, "and the assassination is taking the life of an innocent man, who is a mere figurehead in the government. No intelligent anarchist would do such a thing. It must be the work of a fanatic."

Thomas Greif, well known in Chicago as a leader in the international movement thought the assassination only another link in the chain of evidence of the great social crisis in the civilized world.

"President Carnot's death," said he, "is only one of the signs that point to the revolution that this world must pass through. All Europe has a volcano under it, and it is only a question of time until the greatest revolution the world ever saw will break out. Carnot's death may be the starting point. This incident may be followed by scenes compared with which the battle of the communists were tame. It is this proves to be the case, then all Europe will follow in France's footsteps. This country is also ripe for such a movement, and it would not be surprising if, in the next thirty days, the world, as far as governments are concerned, should be made over again."

When asked if there was any unity of action between the anarchists of France and this country, Greif declared there was not. Neither did he believe that in any of the inner circles of American anarchists there had been any intimation of any special activity at present in France.

MR. CLEVELAND'S MESSAGE

To Congress on the Assassination of President Carnot.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The president took notice of the assassination of President Carnot in the following message to congress:

"The shocking intelligence has been received that the president of France met his death yesterday at the hands of an assassin. This terrible event which has overtaken a sister republic cannot fail to deeply arouse the sympathies of the American nation, while the violent termination of a career promising so much in aid of liberty and in advancing civilization, should be mourned as an affliction of mankind."

GROVER CLEVELAND, EXECUTIVE MANSION, June 25, 1894.

THE FEELING IN GERMANY.

Indignation and Sympathy for France Felt Over the Assassination.

BERLIN, June 25.—The assassination of President Carnot has caused a profound sensation in Berlin. All classes of people are indignant and much sympathy is expressed for France.

Emperor William, upon receiving the news at Kiel, immediately telegraphed Mme. Carnot expressing his condolence in warmly sympathetic terms.

The general public of Germany fully recognizes the gravity of the crime from the political standpoint.

THROUGH THE LIVER.

Carnot's Wound Was a Painfully Agonizing One.

New York, June 25.—The Herald's Paris dispatch says:

"The wound received by M. Carnot was in the upper liver, which was pierced through. From the first, the physicians believed the wounded man doomed. Because of the president's weakness chloroform was not administered, and he cried out several times: 'My God, will this never finish? My God, how I am suffering.'"

British Court in Mourning.

LONDON, June 25.—Following the precedent adopted at the time of the death of the late President James A. Garfield, the British court will go into mourning for a week out of respect to the memory of the late President Carnot.

822 calls up the Poorless

M'CASEY'S SUCCESSOR.

Dr. R. A. Williams, of Olathe, a Republican, is Talked Of.

The state board of charities is in session this week at the insane asylum and will before it adjourn settle the question of who shall be superintendent of that institution for the next year.

The fiscal year of the state charitable institutions ends June 30th, and for that reason there is unusual interest in this meeting of the board.

It is known that the board will carefully consider Dr. McCassey's case and the general understanding is that McCassey will retire.

Dr. Annie M. Kniberg the present assistant superintendent has frequently been mentioned as a possible successor of Dr. McCassey, but today it was learned that a formidable rival for the appointment put in his appearance in the person of Dr. R. A. Williams of Olathe. It was Dr. Williams who cared for Mrs. Lease while she was sick at Olathe, and it is understood that Mrs. Lease has undertaken to give the appointment to Dr. Williams if it is in her power.

Dr. Williams belongs to the electric school of medicine, and all the friends of the homeopathic and allopathic schools are opposed to his appointment.

The strongest argument used against the appointment of Dr. Williams is of a political nature. His enemies charge that he has always been a strong Republican, and that during the legislative controversy he furnished money for the support of the Douglas house. This argument is likely to keep Dr. Williams out of the asylum, although his friends are working hard for him.

CHASING A PRIZE FIGHT.

County Officials Unable to Catch Up With the Fighters.

A party of local sports went to Jefferson county Sunday afternoon and enjoyed a prize fight between Joe Friedlander of Topeka, and Jack O'Keefe of Kansas City. Under Sheriff Tom Wilkerson and five deputies followed the party as far as the county line, where their jurisdiction ended, and then returned home.

Two hacks and half a dozen buggies carried the principals and their admirers to the scene of the fray. They went north on Central avenue as a "blind," for after the party got outside the city they turned east and followed the Grantville road for five or six miles until the county line was passed. The deputy sheriffs were about an hour behind them, and did not get sight of the fighters at any time. They were easily tracked, however, in the muddy roads.

It is said that after about six rounds the match was declared a draw, as O'Keefe insisted on hitting fouls. Neither of the men were bruised much. The deputies who went with Tom Wilkerson were: C. D. Watson, Dan Jones, "Doc" Ward, Arthur Wellman and Dee Wilkerson.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

S. M. Gardenhire a Candidate in the Thirty-Seventh District.

The announcement has been made of the candidacy of S. M. Gardenhire of Potwin, for the Republican nomination for the legislature from the Thirty-Seventh district, including Potwin, the Fifth ward of Topeka and the south end of Shawnee county. There is no more popular Republican in Shawnee county than S. M. Gardenhire. He is a stalwart Republican, a man of high character, with a wide acquaintance, through the state and the most engaging personality that will count for the interests of the district in anything that may be done.

He said he would leave Wednesday for St. Louis to join his army and make arrangements for taking the 270 of his men now there on to Washington. He says there are only 80 members of his army in jail and it won't be long until they will join the main army.

THE WORST REPORTS TRUE

No Less Than Thirty-six Persons Drowned in the New York Disaster.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The capsizing of the tug James D. Nicol off Sandy Hook yesterday is rendered more harrowing by the fact that most of the men were married and leave large families. The highest estimates in last night's dispatches were probably within the mark; for today it is thought that not less than thirty-six persons perished. So far, however, only seven bodies have been recovered.

ADY-MARTIN CONTEST.

It Will Be Taken Up After the Tariff Debate Ends.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The committee on privileges and elections will take up the Ady-Martin contest for the seat held by Mr. Martin in the senate, and immediately after the conclusion of the tariff debate, will probably decide this question before adjournment.

Obituary.

Mrs. J. D. Lucas died at her home 114 West Twenty-first street, Saturday afternoon, after a long illness.

She was a sufferer from cancer, and for five weeks was confined to her bed with rheumatism, which developed into paralysis, the latter being the immediate cause of death.

Mrs. Lucas was 50 years of age, and leaves a family to mourn the loss of a wife and mother. She was well known and loved for her many acts of kindness, and a true kind friend will be sorely missed by those to whom she has endeared herself in time of sickness and affliction.

The funeral will be held at the residence this afternoon at 2:30, conducted by Rev. Thoburn of the Walnut Grove M. E. church, of which the deceased was a member. Interment at Topeka cemetery.

The Neolian Mandolin and Banjo club, under the direction of H. S. Lawrence, give their first public concert in Liberty hall, Friday evening, the 29th. It is given under the patronage of many of the prominent society ladies of Topeka, who have volunteered their support, and promises to be the swell musical event of the summer.

Members of Topeka lodge No. 38, Knights of Pythias, are requested to meet at the hall, corner Sixth and Quincy at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, June 26, to attend the funeral of Brother M. A. Miller.

TOM REED TO COME.

The Big Maine Man Will Make Four Speeches in Kansas.

Major E. N. Morrill has received a letter from Tom Reed in which the famous ex-speaker of the house offered his services to assist in the Kansas campaign, and said he would be able to make three or four speeches in Kansas.

The arrangements for the Reed meetings have not been made and just when they will be held is not yet known.

It is expected that at least one of the speeches will be made in Topeka.

MRS. LEASE GOING ABROAD

The Kansas Woman Orator Will Visit England and Australia.

Kansas may soon lose for a time its brilliant woman orator, Mrs. Mary E. Lease. She has decided to go to England, and will lecture in Australia before she returns. She said to a JOURNAL reporter today: "My business interests demand my presence in England, but I do not know when I shall go. I had intended to go in August, but my illness prevented me filling my lecture dates already made. I was under a $1,500 contract to lecture in Minnesota, and my manager has written that he will not release me until I fill the dates before I definitely decide whether I shall go to Europe. I have given the power of attorney to a gentleman to fix up my business affairs in England, and I will probably soon know from him whether my presence is demanded."

"Do you not intend to lecture while you are there?"

"Oh, yes; that is one of my objects in going. I have received a very flattering offer from Australia and I can do a great deal better there than I could here. I do not intend to leave Kansas. This will always be my home, for I dearly love the west. I even felt restrained when I was in Massachusetts."

"There is a bit of history connected with my lecture contract in Minnesota which has never been told. You know that when that blood-thirsty crank first wrote that he intended to kill me he was in Kenyon, Minnesota. My manager heard of him and his purposes and he wrote that he would see that I was protected at all hazards and not delay my trip on that account. He employed a detective who started just one day behind the crank. His second letter to me was from Creston, Iowa, and he next wrote me from Kansas City that nothing could save me and that I was doomed. I did have fears and felt a presentiment that the man did really intend to kill me, so I had the superintendent at Olathe move me to a room which had no outside window. This proved to be unnecessary for the detective captured him before he left Kansas City, and he is now in the asylum in Minnesota. He has one of Schweinfurth's followers."

SANDERS GOING EAST.

In Topeka Today On His Way to Saint Louis.

"General" John Sherman Sanders who came into Topeka several weeks ago with the captured Cripple Creek communists is in Topeka again this afternoon.

"General" Sanders arrived from Kansas City at noon and spent the afternoon at the state house. He is better dressed than when here last. He is now wearing a light gray coat and vest, black trousers, a derby hat and a light tie. He was cleanly shaved and his shoes were polished when seen by a JOURNAL reporter.

He said he would leave Wednesday for St. Louis to join his army and make arrangements for taking the 270 of his men now there on to Washington. He says there are only 80 members of his army in jail and it won't be long until they will join the main army.

HOOKEY JIM'S BRAINS.

One of Topeka's Characters Being Tried for Insanity Today—Probate Court.

At last "Hookey" Jim Huston has reached his limit. He is being tried before Probate Judge Elliott this afternoon for insanity and it seems a clear case that insanity will win. Captain Gish of the police department is the complaining witness and sufficient evidence will soon have been introduced to make Jim heir to a cell in the asylum. Jim is an epileptic and as he is unable a greater part of the time to take care of himself and has nobly to take care of him, it has been thought best to have the state do it. Harry W. Gibson of North Topeka, and twenty-five this day, appeared before Probate Judge Elliott, and deposed that he desired to marry Lillian E. Hammond of Iowa, aged twenty-nine. The judge was willing and they will be married tomorrow.

SUNDAY MASS MEETING.

Big Assemblage at Denver Denounce the Tarsney Outrage.

DENVER, Colo., June 25.—An immense mass meeting was held at Lincoln park last evening for the purpose of denouncing the Tarsney outrage. Fully 5,000 people were present, all of them being either employed or unemployed Populists. Speeches condemnatory of the episode were made by a number of Populist leaders, among them being Governor Walte and ex-Congressman Belford. Resolutions condemning the act and its perpetrators were adopted.

MARY JONES IS COMING.

Mary Calls Herself the "Mother of the Commonweal Army."

Commonweal "General" John S. Sanders, who is in town today, announced that Mrs. Mary G. Jones, mother of the commonweal army, who helped General Randall out of Chicago, and Kelly through Iowa, will arrive in Topeka tomorrow morning, and will be willing to speak here tomorrow night.

A meeting has been arranged for the court house, and Mrs. Jones and "General" Sanders will speak there tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

A PRETTY CUTE JUSTICE.

He Was Not Great on Bears, But He Knew How to Raise a Fine

It was the law of the village that all showmen, itinerants and organ grinders must get a license before doing business there. One day a fat policeman, who had been on the force about six months without doing anything, concluded it was time he arrested somebody. Soon afterward along came an Italian with a performing bear.

"Hev yez got yer license?" asked the policeman.

"No," said the exhibitor of the bear. "Then yer my priz'ners," said the policeman, and he triumphantly marched off with them to the village station house, he leading the Italian and the Italian leading the bear.

Arraigned before the police justice the Italian pleaded guilty and the judge officiously gave him a most severe and scorching lecture on the enormity of his offense, ending by fining him $10, the full extent of the law.

The culprit had a lot of small change in his pocket, but being mostly pennies and nickels, it only counted up to $7.50. For a few moments the judge was in a quandary. He didn't want to send the fellow to jail, nor yet lose the $10. Presently a bright idea struck him—a happy solution of the problem, and he said: "Here, officer! Take this fellow out to the market place and let him perform with his bear until he makes up the balance; and when he gets it drive him out of town."

GETTING IT MIXED.

He Wanted Something Which They Didn't Keep in Stock.

There was a sign over the door of the music store which read: "Banjo and other musical clubs supplied." One day a man with a strange look in his eye came in and approached the clerk nervously.

"Do you," he asked, "with a half look at the sign, 'supply banjo clubs?'"

"Yes, sir," responded the clerk. "What can I do for you?"

"I want one," said the customer, with a snap, "and I want it big and hard."

"I beg your pardon," replied the clerk, observing with anxiety the strange look of his visitor.

"I said I wanted one," repeated the man, "and I want it big and hard."

"I don't understand you, sir," stammered the clerk, backing off.

"Don't understand?" exclaimed the customer. "That's plain enough. You say you supply banjo clubs and I say I want one."

"But, sir," began the clerk. "Let us go on that," growled the man, getting ugly. "What I want is a banjo club, and I want it now. There's a fellow roomin' next to me that is learnin' to play on one of the confounded things, and I want a club that will fit the case to a nicety, and see what I can do toward havin' it my way for a while. Do you follow?"

And the clerk felt a keen relief in following.

AN APT SCHOLAR.

He Knew Philadelphia's Strongest Patriotic Point.

The class in geography was reciting and there were several visitors. The subject for the day was the state of Pennsylvania. "Now, children," said the teacher, "who can bound Pennsylvania?"

Half a dozen hands went up and waved wildly in the air and a little girl gave the boundaries of the state correctly.

"What is the largest city in Pennsylvania?" asked the teacher.

"Philadelphia," shouted the little boy with the jersey suit.

"Now," continued the teacher, "who can tell me what building there is in Philadelphia about which no true American should think without a glow of love and patriotism? What building is there which we should all love and which is the pride of every loyal son of the United States?"

This was a poser and no one answered for a time. Finally a boy who sat on the front row raised his hand. "Well," said the teacher, "you may tell, Sammy Einstein."

"Der mint!" shouted Sammy, triumphantly.

Another View of It.

"In the slow evolution of the race," mused the elephant, looking with languid interest at the throng of curious gazers that stood on the outside of the ropes and fed him with cakes, peanuts and candy, "how many millions of years it must require to evolve from the shapeless and rudimentary projection on the face of the creature called man the full and perfect proportions of the human face."

LOCAL MENTION.

The Santa Fe took about forty people from Topeka to Kansas City yesterday on its "growler." The Union Pacific "growler" only took twenty-five.

Hon. Cyrus Leland, of the republican state central committee, arrived in Topeka at noon today, and will give his personal attention to the opening of Republican headquarters. Mr. Leland says he will remain in Topeka three or four days.

Forty Feet of St. Joe Washed Away. St. Joe, June 25.—The Missouri river is now eating away the banks at the foot of the business streets in this city and since Saturday night forty feet have been taken from the foot of Jule street.

The young men are disgracefully spoiled. A young man in town took a girl to a 40 cent show recently, and it pleased her so that she gave a party in his honor. Expenses: Cost of papering parlor, $17.35; new napkins, $2.50; ice cream, $8; cakes, etc., $4.75; high five favors, $3.80; hired help, $1.75; total, $36.15. The young man has remarked since that he thought the party a great bore.—Atchison Globe.

A Wellington Young Man Kills Himself for a Woman.

WICHITA, June 25.—The drowning of Reuben Peachy in the Little river last week will result in what may turn out to a long legal contest in the courts.

When Reuben was drowned it was feared that foul play was practiced on him and his parents were very anxious to find the body before decomposition set in. Accordingly a horse and buggy was offered as a reward to the person who would first discover the body.

Albert D. Simmons while wading the river touched the body and claimed the reward. Mrs. Peachy refused to give it up and the result was that the property was replevined. Constables Green and Forby taking it into their possession.

Saturday Mrs. Peachy instituted proceedings in the district court for the purpose of recovering the property and asking $25 damages for having it taken from her. Lawyers say there is a nice point of law involved in the case.

Mrs. Peachy, it is understood, claims that a young man named Shields raised the body of her son out of the water, and that hence the reward belonged to him. She also claims, or rather her attorneys claim it for her, that she settled the claim of Mr. Shields by giving him a gold watch. The affair has caused a good deal of discussion in the neighborhood and it has got to the point that it may break up old neighborly friendships.

BOURBON COUNTY DEMOCRATS.

Cleveland and John Martin Indorsed—J. D. McCleverty for Governor.

FOUR SCOTT, June 25.—At the Democratic county convention here Saturday the following delegates were elected to the state convention: J. D. McCleverty, J. D. Hill, John H. Crain, W. P. Dillard, George Adams, of Bronson; J. M. Davis, of Timberhill; R. M. Wallace, of Hiattville.

A resolution indorsing Cleveland's administration and the course of John Martin was adopted after a fight had been made on the Cleveland pair.

Resolved. We commend the ability, patriotism and integrity of Grover Cleveland and his administration; we congratulate the Democracy of Kansas upon the election of John Martin to the United States senate and cordially indorse his course as senator.

J. D. McCleverty will be worked for by the Bourbon county delegation for governor.

AGAINST FUSION.

Montgomery County Democrats Are for Straight Tickets Everywhere.

INDEPENDENCE, June 25.—The Montgomery Democratic county convention declared, "We are in favor of a straight Democratic ticket, both county and state and believe that our county convention for the nomination of a county ticket should be held at an early day."

The following delegates were chosen to the state convention: W. H. Wells, C. E. Prevett, B. F. Devore, Revilo Newton, T. R. Pittman, W. H. Linton and C. F. Roan.

A BAD CROOK CAPTURED.

Harry Adams Kolber of the New Salem Depot in Jail.

WINFIELD, June 25.—Sheriff Skinner has returned from Ohio, bringing with him Harry H. Adams, thief, forger and general crook, and placed him in jail.

Last November Adams broke into the New Salem depot and robbed the money drawer of its contents, and also stole a number of railroad tickets. Sheriff Skinner has been looking for him ever since and captured him a few days ago at Ashtabula, Ohio.

Killed Himself For a Woman.

WELLINGTON, June 25.—Ed Christie, a young man of this city, quarreled with Rose Bishop, three miles north of Belle Plaine, yesterday afternoon, parted with her at the forks of the road, and after walking a few feet from her shot himself just over the heart. His chances of recovery are about equal with his chances of death. Jealousy is supposed to have been the cause of his attempt to commit suicide.
